Creative Wellness Moves to a Larger Center

EAST LANSING—May 10, 2011 – Creative Wellness, Michigan’s largest complementary health care center is expanding its services and moving. They are still located within the Asher Court complex near the corner of Abbot and Lake Lansing roads in East Lansing, Michigan. The move stems from Creative Wellness’s growth in the past few years and commitment to providing its clients with an ideal atmosphere and flexible scheduling options. They are doubling the number of treatment rooms and expanding on the serene atmosphere with the addition of a waterfall in the waiting room and a reorganized shop. To further enhance their service offerings, Creative Wellness has added a second acupuncturist to the staff, as well as several new Massage Therapists. Hours of operation remain the same, 7 days and 6 nights a week. The move is scheduled for May 14, 2011. Creative Wellness specializes in massage therapy, chiropractic, and acupuncture, and a variety of classes and products to help people achieve well-being. For more information please call 517-352-9240 or visit www.creativewellness.net.
