

[March 25, 2011]

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Creative Wellness Adds Another Acupuncturist

EAST LANSING, March 25, 2011—Creative Wellness, Michigan’s largest center for Complementary Medicine in Michigan, is pleased to announce the addition of a second acupuncturist to its growing family of practitioners. Robyn Grieve is currently a doctoral fellow with Pacific College of Oriental Medicine (PCOM) for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (DAOM).

Robyn has experience in a variety of clinical settings, including community clinics and outpatient centers. She worked with women in the court systems whom were mandated to attend a detox program and helped Schizophrenic patients manage their illness and reduce the number of times they needed to be hospitalized. Robyn also worked with homeless Vets with PTSD and substance abuse issues.

Robyn uses her knowledge and training in Acupuncture to help patients with emotional issues such as weight loss, depression, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), stress, chronic pain, and pediatrics.

She has also been a yoga teacher since 1999 and a massage therapist since 2003.

New patients are being accepted.

###

About Creative Wellness

Creative Wellness offers a diverse selection of health services, classes, and products, which have a balancing effect on physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual well-being. Over 20 certified massage therapists, chiropractors, and acupuncturists provide the means to achieve a higher level of wellness and a healthier lifestyle. Located at 2025 Abbot Road, in East Lansing, 517.351.9240.

For questions regarding this press release, please contact:

Anne Subrizi, Marketing Director

Creative Wellness

Asher Court

2025 Abbott Road, Suite 200

East Lansing, MI 48823

(517) 351-9240

Cell: (517) 614-3609

anne@creativewellness.net